I. Trip Date

Our rafting season runs from early-May through September. The more dates you choose, the better your chances are of getting a rafting date with ICO this summer. Most groups who apply can be accommodated but trips in May and June are typically the most sought after and a flexibility in dates is important. Make sure you specify whether you are applying for a one-day trip or two-day (weekend) trip.

Please circle ALL dates that your group CAN go:
